NEW BOOK from Rail Heritage WA

STATION MASTERS OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA
by Jeff Austin

The men who were the 'public face' of railways in WA. Their duties, the people, and how their job changed over the years. Detailed listings give the names and dates of every station master at each railway station ever attended in WA.

- 160 pages with historic photos, most never published before – in colour where available
- WAGR/Westrail – 120 years of detailed history
- Includes Midland Railway Company of WA, Great Southern Railway and WA section of the trans-Australian line
- Fully indexed to surnames – for genealogy and family history
- Check if your station was ever attended and if so, all the names
- Essential reference for local libraries

To be launched
Sunday 16 October
at Railfest 2011
